Agreement

Obligations of the Outfitter. In performing the services list above, Royal Tine Outfitters (#6035) promises to do the following:

- Provide adequate food and shelter and based upon the limitations and conditions.
- Provide a licensed professional hunting guide.
- Use diligence and safety in all matters for the client, but it is understood that many things can effect hunting (ie. weather, your preparedness, physical condition, etc) and we do not guarantee success.
- Provide proper care of trophies in the field and while in hunting camp.

Client's obligations. Client shall:

- Provide own personal clothing, equipment, and weapon.
- Provide transportation to and from the Missoula, MT or Butte, MT airports.
- Pay costs of meat processing and taxidermy which includes shipping of hides and antlers.
- Pay for food, lodging and transportation costs for dates not covered by this agreement.
- Obey all laws and conduct himself or herself in a reasonable, prudent and safe manner under the circumstances.

Knowing voluntary assumption of risk. Client hereby agrees and acknowledges that he or she has had ample opportunity to investigate and study the inherent dangers and risks associated with engaging in the activities and services set forth above and that Royal Tine Outfitters will not be held liable for injury or illness pertaining to adverse weather (snow, sleet, ice, wind), rugged terrain, use of saddle and pack horses, and dangers posed by wild animals. Client expressly agrees and acknowledges that he accepts and consents to these risks as part of this Agreement.

Client also agrees that he or she is in the appropriate physical condition and possesses the sufficient outdoor and hunting or fishing skills to reasonably undertake the services set forth herein and to fully participate in and enjoy the same despite the inherent risks and hardships.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF by their signatures below, the parties agree and acknowledge that they have read the foregoing and agree to be bound by the same.
